The Art of Unconditional Love

Miracles occur naturally as an expression of love.
The real miracle is the love that inspires them.
In this sense, everything that comes from love is a miracle.

A miracle is a reversal of the physical order because it brings more love to the giver AND the receiver.

Prayer is the medium of miracles. Prayer is the natural communication of the Created with the Creator.

Through prayer, love is received, and through miracles love is expressed.

Luke 16:13 “No servant can serve two masters:
for either he will hate the one, and love the other;
or else he will hold to one, and despise the other.
Ye cannot serve God and mammon.”

Revelation involve an extremely personal sense of closeness to Creation, which man tries to find in sexual relationships. This confusion is responsible for the depression and fear which are often associated with sex. Sex is often associated with lack of love, but Revelation is PURELY a love experience. Physical closeness CANNOT achieve this.

T 1 B 24i.

"At the same time sex plays a tremendous role in maintaining the mechanicalness of life. Everything that people do is connected with 'sex': politics, religion, art, the theater, music, is all 'sex.' Do you think people go to the theater or to church to pray or to see some new play? That is only for the sake of appearances.

The Art of Unconditional Love

The principal thing, in the theater as well as in church, is that there will be a lot of women or a lot of men. This is the center of gravity of all gatherings. What do you think brings people to cafés, to restaurants, to various fetes? One thing only. Sex: it is the principal motive force of all mechanicalness. All sleep, all hypnosis, depends upon it.

Yes, it is malpractice, but it is not the malpractice of an individual or a group; it is the anti-Christ that makes some of us believe that two times two is five, when it is really four, makes others believe that wealth is in money, or makes still others believe that satisfaction is in sex. That is all malpractice. The truth is that the only wealth is in God; the only health is in God; the only satisfaction is in God.

It must be conveyed to the student that there is no way on earth to influence God and that nothing he or anyone else can do will gain God's favor. The student can refrain from smoking and drinking; he can refrain from sex; he can refrain from eating meat; he can go on month-long fasts; but he cannot move God.

We must finally love objectively: I love you for your ankles. I love your nose. I love your hair. I love your boobs. I love you for your intellect. I love you for your artistic achievements. I love you for the way you make me feel. I love you for your new boat. I love you because we go to the same church. I love you because you're black or blue or green. I love you because we share a lot of dislikes.

I love you because somehow we are going to work through the dilemma of earth in our quest, and together we can find the answers. I love you because my father told me I had to. I love you in defiance of my culture. I love you for all the little things that we share together. I love you despite some particular idiosyncrasies you have, but I'll attempt to change them or just have to go along with them. Amazing, isn't it?
